I was out of my Space This Time and blamed it on the Missing Piece of brain Can You Dig It having no place to go I figured I'd find it Around the Way came across a note posted that said it'd been found Go Figure retrieval was rendered futile as the posting was Untitled and by that time I was Over It had I only used my infinite Telescopic Hindsight so we headed to where the scene was Real Live Again and Again leaving myself behind with the intent of living All of Life what a Stress Mess it can all be
