GIRL IN THE WINDOW

Lyrics

*Workin' hard all week long
Feeding the machine
The only thing keeping me from sleep
Tonight I've got somewhere else to be
Up in a room lookin' over the city
Please o' please somewhere I can dream and be...*

The girl in the window (x4)

*She always knows just when to speak there's something about her sensuality
So confident she doesn't miss a beat Why o' why can't I always be*

The girl in the window (x4)

*Turning heads is always her scene
She has such a deep vocabulary
At every sight she's dressed impeccably but She's always alone and remains a mystery*

"Who is she?" (qui c'est fille?)

"Omg, who's that girl?" (Sore wa daredesu ka?)

"Why haven't I seen her here before?" (ik haar hier nog niet eerder gezien)

"Oh my god, who is that?" (Tā jiào shénme míngzì?)

The girl in the window (x4)

BATTERY

Lyrics

Uh, uh

Yeah...yeah...

I've had enough of the best wishes and kind regards

*I'm not afraid to go too far with you
with you, with you*

*Cause, I'm supposed to keep this to myself
But with every kiss my power flows to you to you, to you*

*And I don't mind my levels changing cause
Every night I'm lyin' here with you
with you, with you*

So just plug right into me and I'll give you all the power you need you need you need

I'm your battery (all the power you need)

I'm your battery (all the power you need)

So, can you keep me keep me keep me safe at night?

I wanna hold ya hold ya hold ya tight just whisper something sweet

I promise to be what you need

What you need...

I promise to be what you need

What you need...

I promise to be what you need

BEDROOM RAVER

Lyrics

*Don't, don't give up now
You'll make it through
You'll see it, you'll feel it
I know it's true*

*Don't give up now
You'll see this through
You'll make it, you'll dream it
I know it's true*

*Don't give up now
You'll see this through
You'll feel it, you'll see it
I know it's true*

*Don't give up now
You'll make it through
You'll feel it, you'll dream it
I know it's true*

*Keep fighting
Keep dreaming
Keep living
Just keep going*

*But don't, don't give up now
You'll make it through
You'll feel it, you'll see it I know it's true*

x2

*and you...I believe in you
I see it, I feel it, I know it's true*
